

RESUME

January 2007

Frank D. Eaman, Attorney
Frank D. Eaman, PLLC
Suite 3060, 645 Griswold St., Detroit, MI 48226
(313) 962-7210 Fax: (313) 961-7799 eaman@eamanolaw.com

BAR ADMISSIONS: All Michigan Courts and Eastern District of Michigan (1971), Sixth Circuit (1978), United States Supreme Court (1984), Second Circuit (1989), Western District of Michigan (1999).

EDUCATION: University of Michigan Law School, J. D. 1971; University of Chicago, A.B., 1967 (International Relations).

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE: Trials and appeals, state and federal courts, with emphasis on criminal cases.

2007-Present: Frank D. Eaman, P.L.L.C.

1988 to 2006: Bellanca, Beattie & DeLisle, P.C., Harper Woods and Detroit, Michigan.

1975 to 1988: Eaman & Ravitz, P.C., Detroit.

1971 to 1975: Gage, Burgess, Knox, Burgess & Eaman, Detroit.

APPOINTMENTS: By Governor James J. Blanchard to the State Appellate Defender Commission on recommendation of the Michigan Supreme Court (1988); reappointed by Governor John M. Engler on recommendation of the Court (1992).

AWARDS: Right to Counsel Award, Criminal Defense Attorneys of Michigan (CDAM), (2004); Legacy Award, Legal Aid and Defender's Association of Detroit (LADA) (1999); Distinguished Brief Award, Thomas M. Cooley Law School (1994); CDAM Appreciation Award (1991); Arthur vonBriesen Award from the National Legal Aid and Defenders Association (1983); Distinguished Service Award of the Detroit Bar Association (1983); Friend of the Year Award from the Board of Trustees of Friends of Legal Aid of the Legal Aid and Defender's Association of Detroit (1983).

PUBLISHED ARTICLES: "Michigan—48th in the Country in Assigned Counsel Fees," The Champion, December 2001; "Lawyers Set to Take Action Against Low Fees," Michigan Lawyers Weekly, October 29, 2001, reprinted, Criminal Defense Newsletter (CDL), November 2001; "Relief for Lifers: 6.500 Motion Advocacy May Yield Results," CDL, June-July, 2000; "People of the State of Michigan v Harriet Davis," 11 Cooley Law Review, No. 3, 1994; "Psychologically Coerced Confessions, People v DeLisle," CDL, Nov. 1992; "Media Access to Prosecution Exhibits, People v DeLisle," CDL, Vol. 16, No. 3, Dec., 1992; "A Model System for Indigent Defense Services," Michigan Bar Journal, February, 1992, Vol. 71, No. 2; "Gideon

v Wainwright--The Big Change Has Yet to Happen,” Michigan Bar Journal, Fiftieth Anniversary Commemorative Issue, August 1985.

TEACHING AND LECTURING: Adjunct professor, Cooley Law School, 2005-present, Trial Skills Class. Lecturer and workshop leader at numerous CDAM and Michigan Trial Lawyers Association (MTLA) seminars for lawyers, beginning in 1987. Instructor at the Trial College of CDAM at Cooley Law School (2004 & 2006). Workshop leader, moderator, or panel participant for presentations by the National Conference of Chief Justices and State Court Administrators, Michigan Judicial Institute, Wayne State University Medical School, the State Bar of Michigan, the Institute for Continuing Legal Education, the Michigan Association of Counties, and the Associated Press; Guest Lecturer at Detroit College of Law, Trial Practice Class, and University of Michigan, Criminal Law Class; Speaker at various local bar association meetings throughout Michigan; guest appearances on Detroit radio and television talk shows.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES: Current: Member, National Association of Criminal Defense Attorneys, CDAM, State Bar Standing Committee on Justice Initiatives (CJI), Chairperson of the Criminal Issues Initiative of the CJI, ex-officio board member of CDAM, and member of the Michigan Public Defense Task Force of the Michigan Counsel on Crime and Delinquency. Past: Chairperson, State Bar Task Force and Committee on Assigned Counsel Standards; President, CDAM; vice president and member of LADA Board; member of the Defender Systems and Services Committee of the State Bar, MTLA board, State Bar Committee on Victims Rights, Detroit Bar Association Committee on Pro Bono Legal Services; evaluator and monitor for Legal Services Corporation (evaluating legal aid offices) and for The Spangenberg Group (evaluating public defense services); listed in Who's Who in the Midwest and Tarlow, National Directory of Criminal Lawyers, 1st, 2nd and 3rd Ed; testified as expert witness in state and federal courts (expert on effective assistance of counsel).

REPRESENTATIVE CASES: (1) United States v. Melendez, et al., Eastern District of Michigan (EDM), (2004); represented Detroit Police Officer in ten week trial on charges of civil rights conspiracy. Client and all other defendants acquitted on 30 counts. (2) United States v. Tocco, et al., EDM, (1998-2003); fourteen-week RICO conspiracy trial. Client was only defendant acquitted; represented co-defendant on multiple appeals to Sixth Circuit. (3) In Re: Recorder's Court Bar, 443 Mich 110 (1993); challenged low attorney fees for appointed counsel in indigent felony cases in Wayne County, Michigan. Two weeks of hearings before a special master, and eventual decision in Supreme Court striking down the unfair fee schedule. (4) People v DeLisle, 183 Mich App 713 (1990); represented client in nationally publicized homicide case. Confession suppressed, but client convicted on all counts. (5) United States v. Ebens, 800 F2d 1422 (CA 6, 1986); the internationally publicized “Vincent Chin Case,” and the subject of the Oscar-nominated documentary movie “Who Killed Vincent Chin?” Client’s conviction at first trial reversed on appeal and client acquitted at second trial. Some other published cases: People v LoCicero, 453 Mich 496 (1996); People v Davis, 442 Mich 1 (1993); Dolenga v Aetna, 185 Mich App 620 (1990); McCarthy v State Farm, 170 Mich App 451 (1988); Shelby Township v Shields, 115 Mich App 98 (1982); United States v Townsend, 394 F Supp 736 (DC Mich, 1975).